HITACHI

Your One-Stop Source for IT Training

Empower your team with flexible, mission-ready learning —
for Hitachi and every other major technology in your environment.

Train Smarter. Simplify Procurement. Expand Possibilities.

Modern federal missions demand teams that can adapt, secure, and innovate across every layer of the technology stack. Hitachi Federal Learning Services makes that possible—offering a single, flexible way to train your workforce on Hitachi and non–Hitachi technologies alike. Whether you're modernizing infrastructure, deploying AI, or optimizing data center operations, Hitachi provides the training path and flexibility to fit your needs.

Why Hitachi for Training

One Contract. Unlimited Learning.

Use your existing Hitachi procurement vehicle to access courses across Hitachi and leading IT vendors—without setting up new suppliers or POs.

One Program for All Your Training Needs.

Apply Hitachi Training Units toward courses from:

- Hitachi: Storage, SAN, Hybrid Cloud, DataOps, AI, and more.
- Third-Party Technologies: Cisco, Red Hat, Microsoft, VMware, IBM, AWS, Adobe, and more.

One Platform. Flexible Delivery.

- Instructor-Led and Virtual Instructor-Led
- On-Demand and Self-Paced
- Private Group Sessions
- Subscription Learning Paths

The Result: Mission-Ready Teams.

Advance your team's readiness, improve operational efficiency, and reduce support dependency—all while accelerating mission outcomes.

Training Units: Flexible. Scalable. Easy.

Training Units are prepaid training credits valid for 12 months, redeemable for any Hitachi or partner-delivered course.

How They Work:

- Purchase once, train anytime.
- Apply to instructor-led, virtual, or on-demand courses.
- Use across teams, sites, or agencies.
- Cover certification prep and conference courses.

Why Agencies Choose Them:

- Flexible to use across the workforce for virtually any training or technology solution.
- Avoid new vendor setup.
- Centralize and manage training spend.
- Enable rapid access to mission-critical training.
